

Can you drink of the cup? A Lenten Series for Everyone

In the Gospel of Matthew we read the story of a mother who wants the best for her sons. Mr. Zebedee’s wife asks Jesus for a prominent place for her sons in His Kingdom. Jesus asks the young men: “Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink?” They replied: “We can.” To that Jesus replied: “Very well; you shall drink my cup, but as for seats at my right and left, these are not mine to grant....”

This Lent are we ready to drink of that cup? The cup of life, of death, of resurrection... the cup of salvation?

Bring your favorite cup or mug. It will become a vessel through which we reflect on our life. We will have time to HOLD the life God has blessed us with in our hands and cherish all that it contains. We will LIFT our lives up in thanksgiving to God and will be invited to DRINK deeply, to the end, of the cup of life, our life, bitter and sweet as Jesus did the day before he died. There will be time for prayer, listening and sharing if you wish.
